

Landon Center on Aging

Research:

- Brain Plasticity & Repair
- Cognitive Neuropsychology
- Cognitive Aging
- Motor Function
- Stroke Rehabilitation
- Human Performance

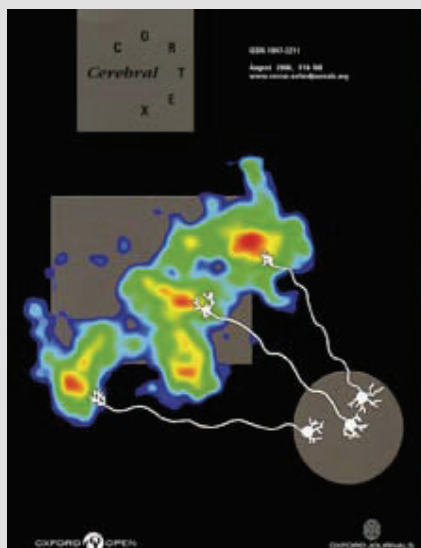

Funding Sources:

National Institutes of Health, National Institute on Aging, American Heart Association, Kansas City Area Sciences Institute

Equipment:

- Vicon 512, AMTE force plates, EMG, Cybex 6000, A/D systems
- Novel Grip system, exercise equipment, postural stress test
- ASL 6000 eye-tracking system
- Neuropsychological assessments
- Animal surgical suite
- Zeiss/Microbrightfield Neuroanatomical Morphometry System

Director:

Randolph J. Nudo, Ph.D.
(Florida State University, 1985)

Professor & Vice Chair of Research, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine

rnudo@kumc.edu

Go to www.bio.engr.ku.edu to learn more.